Historic Wintersburg

Overview of orchestrated harassment and anti-Asian hate

Parallel efforts: disinformation, defamation, hate

- 1) disinformation to discredit historic significance of Historic Wintersburg,
 - 2) individual targeting - defamation to malign and discredit preservation leader,
 - 3) disinformation, defamation, and hate combined with anti-Asian rhetoric and graphics
 - 4) cross pollination on multiple social media platforms
 - 5) fake profiles, later under their real names
- December 7, 2014 (Pearl Harbor Day): multiple comments by Individual #1 on the Historic Wintersburg Facebook, claiming the history of Americans of Japanese descent should not be shared on Pearl Harbor Day; accusations of fundraising (no fundraising appeal on December 7). A handful of others who did not follow the page and had not previously commented joined him (coordinated). When asked about comments that equate to censorship of American history and that may be offensive to Japanese Americans who follow the page, Individual #1 said “why should I know and why should I care?” This individual later led much of the harassment.

February 2, 2016: Online harassment initiated by new single-purpose fake profile on Twitter, then shared on Huntington Beach Facebook pages. This account tagged news media, Asian American organizations, and small number of individuals in Huntington Beach (who continued to participate in orchestrated social media). First police reports filed in 2016. Targets Asian Americans, includes misogyny, ageism, fake quote an attempt to malign and erode support.

July 2016: I post statement on author Facebook page to provide information about what was happening. By this time, there were continuous social media posts from early morning to late night. An extraordinary amount of time, as though someone was being paid or provided some incentive.

STATEMENT ON CYBER STALKER

As some of you know, I have been subjected to anonymous cyber stalking, doxing, libel and harassment for almost six months now. The latest activity is a series of tweets, emails and a "press release" full of misinformation and misleading statements.

The police have been made aware of this new activity and have a detailed log of all activity. I am allowing the police to do their investigation and provide any information they may need. There is nothing to hide.

As this person also seems to be going after my family (tried to friend my child on Facebook), I would caution all of you to be careful who you follow or friend.

The fictitious identity of this anonymous cyber stalker is "Richard Mori." I am sure this person will be happy to have their name out there once again. I think it is important so you may block him to prevent harassment. His profile says "not here to bully" but to "tell the truth," yet he does not share his real identity with anyone. Anonymous, sustained online harassment is more than bullying; it is a violation of California Penal Code 646.9.

All the harassment and libel relates to Historic Wintersburg. To destroy the effort to save and preserve a Japanese American National Treasure historic place, this person is spending a considerable amount of time (late night) trying to damage me, personally and professionally. Who benefits from that is the question.

Be safe, be well.

July 14, 2016: Emails to organizations around the US, attempts to intimidate, spread disinformation, divide support

- “Richard Mori” email to Little Tokyo Historical Society threatening them with IRS complaint, “Because the Little Tokyo Historical Society has solicited donations on behalf of Historic Wintersburg, a private business, and because the Little Tokyo Historical Society is a 501(c)(3), you have been engaging in activities that are in direct violation of the exempt organization tax laws of the IRS. The Little Tokyo Historical Society’s public support of Mary Urashima and her business Historic Wintersburg and the charity scam “We continue to support @HistoricWintersburgHB 100” via your Twitter site @LTHSnews and @LTreporterfilm further provide direct evidence of your organizational involvement and thus supports the complaint to the IRS.” [Police Report DR 16-008215]

August 2016:

- “Richard Mori” is asked via email by multiple parties in Japanese American community about who he is and his interest in Historic Wintersburg (in response to his email they received).
- No answer to anyone.

October 20, 2016: Overlap in social media comments and comments by representative of Rainbow Environment / Republic Services.

- Meeting at city hall with Republic VP Dave Hauser, Rainbow/Reppublic VP Jeff Snow, City Council Members Jill Hardy and Erik Peterson, City Attorney Michael Gates, National Trust for Historic Preservation representative Kevin Sanada. During discussion, Jeff Snow rises out of seat, leans toward me and yells, “I will I have no part of this! I will have no part of anything celebrating Pearl Harbor!”
- Pearl Harbor comments conflate the history of Americans of Japanese descent with the actions by Japan, exactly as was done 80+ years ago. Same type of comment used in the orchestrated harassment on Historic Wintersburg Facebook page on December 7 in 2014 and 2016.
- During meeting, Jeff Snow also makes comment that Historic Wintersburg property is worth $8 million; the only other person who had used that specific dollar amount is the fake profile “Richard Mori”. Prior to this, Rainbow / Republic had always stated they bought the property for $6 million.

December 7, 2016: Coordinated harassment/hate on Historic Wintersburg Facebook page

- Chuck Johnson (Sledgehammer blog) and [Individual #3] participate in coordinated harassment on Historic Wintersburg Facebook.
- [Individual #3] comments, “There’s not multiple perspectives on a day like today—there’s only one—an evil empire slaughtered innocent Americans. You can talk about internment the other 364 days of the year—can’t you let the Americans who lost their lives have one day without you pushing your politically correct agenda?” He later comments, “what background do you have as a historian, Mary?”
- [Individual #4] comments, “shame on you for trying to make money off your ex-husband’s name, you don’t even know, you weren’t even there”.
- Note: the posts on the Historic Wintersburg page were shared from a variety of sources, e.g. U.S. Department of Defense, Manzanar Committee, other national historical organizations. No original posts or commentary by Historic Wintersburg.
- Equates to censorship of American history, conflating Americans of Japanese descent with Japan . Distortion of factual events: e.g., half the civilians killed at Pearl Harbor were Japanese American, Japanese Americans were wrongfully accused, Japanese Americans served in US military as their families were incarcerated.

By 2017:

- Continual discrediting of historic significance
- Repetition of disinformation: attempt to alienate or divide support
- Chilling effect: make people hesitant to support or comment on social media (fear they would become a target)
- Discredit preservation lead (me) with accusations of profiting, cultural appropriation (“she’s not Asian”), personal comments about family, doxxing, photo-shopped images of me
- Spread disinformation/hate on multiple Huntington Beach social media platforms (cross pollination to shape public opinion)
- Coordinate or orchestrate harassment in attempt to silence or intimidate preservationists
- Tactic to coordinate ongoing disinformation and questioning to distract, divert attention

2017: Fake profiles share new fake profiles (amplification). Photos of Japanese Americans with disrespectful commentary, potentially making them a target for social media hate and/or attempt to alienate Japanese American community. Targeted comments about preservation lead (me) being “European” or white and having a Japanese last name. This fostered comments about the ethnicity of my family, my child, and veiled comments about me participating in “white genocide.”

June 19

I recently returned from another trip back to Germany to find a post on the situation at “Historic Wintersburg”.

It appears that Mary Urashima is trying to throw some shade on Rainbow and blame them for the lack of progress at “Historic Wintersburg”. For those of you who are unaware of the truth behind “Historic Wintersburg”, I offer the following:

In 2006, the former Furata Family farm at the intersection of Warner Ave. and Nichols, a 4.5-acre parcel was purchased by Rainbow Disposal, who wanted the land for expansion. Rainbow paid 6 million dollars for the parcel. The Furata family never expressed any interest in advocating on behalf of any “Historic attributes” to the parcel and happily took the money and laughed all the way to the bank.

Mary Urashima, a European woman who married and then divorced a man of Japanese descent, still retains his Asian last name. In a situation reminiscent of Rachel Dolezal, the white head of an NAACP branch, Ms. Urashima advocates on behalf of the Japanese American community. Ms. Urashima managed to find a sympathetic ear in the former Obama administration to designate the land a “Historic Treasure”. This designation is largely ceremonial and imparts no protection to the parcel.

Densho, Discover Nikkei, Stephanie K. Meeks and 4 others

June 19, 2017:

- I share the fake profile “Jim Smith” post on the Historic Wintersburg Facebook with statement and offer to answer any questions people may have regarding his accusations.
- “Jim Smith” responds with comment, “Mary, give it up. Can you raise the 8 million dollars for the property or is it your intention to try and grind the owner of the property down and take the property by fiat? That is the question.”
- Use of $8 million dollar figure had only used by fake profile “Richard Mori” and by Rainbow-Republic manager Jeff Snow in October 2016 meeting at city hall.
- Use of “take the property by fiat” comment used by [Individual #1]
- (Police Report DR 16-008215)

June 21, 2017: “HB Sledgehammer” blog created by Huntington Beach resident Charles “Chuck” Johnson about two weeks after June 5, 2017, vandalism at Historic Wintersburg. Blog uses as banner the old Rising Sun flag of Japan, kanji, a Japanese zero airplane, and person with sledgehammer (well-known white supremacists symbol.)

“A personality cult or cult of personality is a system in which a leader is able to control a group of people through the sheer force of his or her personality and is often portrayed as a god-like figure.

Where the personality cult is about a head of state, criticism of that person is generally prohibited, and state-sponsored media are employed to ensure that the masses are given a consistent picture of the person’s perfection.”

June 24, 2017: Doxxing, conspiracy theory

- Ocean View School District that [Individual #1] has made a public records act request for “All email between Mary Urashima and any/all OVSD board members between 1/2016 to present day (6/24)”.
- I am a private citizen.
- There are no emails between me and OVSD board members. OVSD responded to his request, informing him there were no emails. No explanation for request, but he had posted communications of other private and public individuals on his blog.

July 3, 2017: Chuck Johnson publishes post on HB Sledgehammer, using an unauthorized photograph of me (from my private Facebook page), refers to me as “worse than Tokyo Rose” and a “terrorist”. Post uses anti Japanese graphics.

I later speak with Fred Provencher, chair of HB Reads, to whom the terrorist comment was attributed. He is shocked and states they would say no such thing and will provide a statement as such if needed. One of HB Reads’ major sponsors is Rainbow-Republic. (Police Report DR 16-008215) (Police report DR 2017-013476)

Mary Urashima

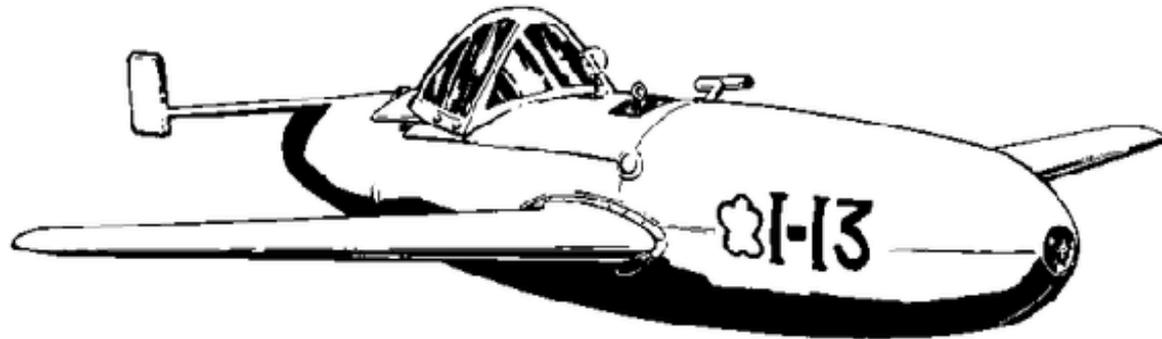

Tokyo Rose had nothing on this co-conspirator Tarvinite, who hitched her Far East wagon to Tarvin in the hope it will help save a rundown parcel of weeds called “Historic” Wintersburg. She doesn’t own it, she has no rights over it, but like Tarvin, Urashima (her name is Adams, OK?) is fast to play victim after issuing her own brutal attacks. Her reputation around town as an arrogant bully led HBReads organizers to refer to her as a “terrorist.” A perfect wing woman for Tarvin. Any criticisms are instantly branded as “hate speech.”

July 8, 2017: Email to HBPD adding to police report

- “Comments regarding my ethnicity or the ethnicity of my family can be considered a hate incident.”
- “Characterizing me as a ‘bully’ or ‘terrorist’ is libel. There is clear doxxing of me for a lengthy period of time by [Individual #1] and [Individual #2] for malicious intent, some of which coincides with the initial cyber harassment by "Richard Mori" beginning in February 2016.
- “The motive appears to be protective of Rainbow Environmental (Republic Services).”; continually referencing Rainbow-Repbulic.
- The content of the post by "Jim Smith" and publication of "The Sledgehammer" are incitement. This is subjecting me to further harassment or potential violence, considering the appeal to white nationalism for which we have recent activity in Huntington Beach.

- “Meanwhile, over in Huntington Beach, a different sort of Japanese Cultural attraction is being pimped by Mary Urashima (née Adams), a Caucasian Woman who has taken it upon herself to save Historic Wintersburg, the dilapidated remnants of a Japanese settlement in Huntington Beach, Ca,”

Be the first to share

Mary Urashima's dream of turning what she refers to as "Historic Wintersburg" is slowly unraveling due to her absolute failure to generate public interest and raise funds to "Preserve" an unremarkable collection of rundown shacks in Huntington Beach California.

August 16, 2017:

- Two Chuck Johnson posts on HB Sledgehammer blog about me and Historic Wintersburg. One post is titled, “Times Up”, the other is titled “For You Mary” [targeted, implied threat]. Both are provided to HBPD for police report.
- Chuck Johnson creates fraudulent GoFundMe page using my name and Historic Wintersburg’s name, unauthorized and misrepresentation. He includes song lyrics that are an implied threat.
- A graphic is included for the GoFundMe page (plaque to raise $1,000 for a historical plaque after everything is demolished. The plaque graphic reads, “Former site of the Furuta family homestead, incorrectly renamed ‘Historic Wintersburg’. This site once had several unremarkable buildings and some Japanese people lived here.”* Reported to GoFundMe and HBPD. The GoFundMe page was still up as of January 2018; now down. (Police report DR 2017-013476)

August 16, 2017 – August 25, 2017:

- Email to HBPD: “Please help! Chuck Johnson has set up a fraudulent GoFundMe page regarding me and Historic Wintersburg. <https://hbsledgehammer.com/2017/08/16/times-up/> It has an active link to a real GoFundMe and uses my name.”
- HBPD officer takes new police report at my home, relating to actions by Chuck Johnson. Both police reports remain open, as of January 2018. The reports are DR 16-008215 (2016), and DR 2017-013476 (2017).
- Chuck Johnson post on HB Sledgehammer with “merchandise”, a t-shirt using the image of the vandalized (tagged) 1934 Wintersburg Japanese Church with an unauthorized photo-shopped image of me. [Targeting]
- No permission granted for use of my photograph or image as required by copyright law. He makes comments to me directly, calling me by name on this post. (Police report DR 2017-013476)

September 11, 2017: Doxxing, no “list” was created, threat

- Chuck Johnson posts threats on HB Sledgehammer blog: “I am in the process of gathering info regarding your complaints to HBPD about harrasment. I understand i made the list. Lawyer up Mary. You cant make those charges in a pubic (sic) setting recorded for posterity without repercussions . You are a fucking tyrant just like Tarvin. Blowback hurts. Ask Mark Bixby....If Urashima thinks im going to let this stand....allegations filed with HBPD that become a matter of public record, she will deserve everything I have in store for her. She thinks shes above criticism. Above opposing viewpoints. Above differences of opinion. Mary...you got another thing comin.”

September 13, 2017: Continued conspiracy of “list,” doxxing

- Chuck Johnson, HB Sledgehammer, emails City of Huntington Beach staff, “I am requesting a copy of the minutes of the Historic Wintersburg preservation task force from the 8/24 meeting. In addition i am requesting the name of the detective from the HBPD that circulated a list of names.of those accused of "harrasment" by chair Mary Urashima. Thank you Chuck Johnson.”
- City staff emails me. I answer: “I am copying Michael Gates [city attorney]. This never happened. There was no HBPD officer or detective at our meeting. No individuals were discussed at the meeting. There is no list. I don't think it would even be a practice of any police department to discuss individuals at an open, public meeting. It is not the practice of the task force, either. The agenda item was to inform the task force that the online harassment continues and two police reports have been filed over the past 19 months. The task force members obviously are aware and have seen some of the online material, since it is Huntington Beach based. It is a concern of everyone, as there are attempts to discredit or malign the work of community volunteers. We had guests from CSULB, the City's human relations task force, and Preserve Orange County at our meeting. Those were the only guests. I will share this also with the HBPD detective who manages my case, so he is aware of the reference to the department.”

September 15, 2017: Hurtado v. Rainbow-Republic filed regarding illegal sale of employee-owned company to Republic Services

- Unknown to preservationists, former and current employees of Rainbow-Republic file legal complaint re: “illegal sale” of Rainbow Environmental Services to Republic Services.
- Certified US District Court class action is settled in May 2021 in the employees favor.
- Defendants Gerry Moffatt and Jeff Snow (Rainbow Disposal) identified as "most culpable" [docket] and amended the ESOP in order to sell the company and remained with Republic after the sale after "secretly negotiating $5 million in non-compete bonuses for themselves" [docket] as part of the sale. Gerry Moffat personal count is for $3,489,958.38 (plus other counts), Jeff Snow personal count is for $2,975,000.00 (plus other counts), per court public documents. Republic also paid millions into settlement.

September 22, 2017: A few days after court filing, more anti-Japanese “merchandise” shared on HB Sledgehammer and Huntington Beach social media. Photoshop of me in Japanese zero airplane, reference to “Operation Ten-Go 2017” [WWII reference]

<https://hbsledgehammer.com>

September 20-21, 2017: Threat

- Chuck Johnson, HB Sledgehammer, makes threat against me in a late night phone call with a local resident, who becomes alarmed and contacts me.
- Email to HBPD: “Chuck was agitated, angry, and began talking about me. Victor stated Chuck Johnson called me “fucking Mary Urashima” and that he ‘has something planned for me.’ These comments are similar to what he was posting on the ‘You Know You Grew Up in Huntington Beach’ facebook page a week ago, where he commented along the lines of ‘she’s going to get what’s coming to her”, and that he has “something planned” for me.’ I do not feel safe due to his continuing comments on social media, his blog posts, and now threats about me to other people. This is now over 19 months of sustained harassment by a few men who devote a considerable amount of time harassing me, the majority of whom I have never even met. I believe Chuck Johnson’s comments over the past week rise to the level of civil harassment and are direct threats.”

September 22, 2017: Request of Republic Services to disavow hate, harassment which continues to be protective of them and cite their name

- I email Republic Services(Chris Kentopp, Dave Hauser, Alberto Guardado), requesting statement on their letterhead disavowing harassment that cites them by name. They had provided a similar statement to Ocean View School District, disavowing the harassment; I request similar statement.
- “No one, including myself, should feel they are at risk working on a community project with Republic, no matter how challenging. Many do feel at risk now due to the harassment. We want you to clear the mis-use of Republic's name and to reassure the community that this harassment does not in any way represent you. I am requesting a statement for the Historic Wintersburg Preservation Task Force by Republic, similar to what was provided to the Ocean View School District. ”
- No response to multiple emails requesting statement.

September 29, 2017: Continued conspiracy of “list”

December 7, 2017: Targeting me and Historic Wintersburg for harassment on Pearl Harbor Day

PUBLISHED ON November 30, 2017 by Chuck Johnson

It's Pearl Harbor Day!

And that usually means that Mary Urashima from "Historic Wintersburg" will be out on social media, bleating about the injustice of Manzanar, in her usual culturally confused, special way... perhaps even trying to drum up a couple bucks on the backs of the American Dead who perished in a cowardly sneak attack.

Please enjoy the "Where's Mary?" Game. Kinda like "Where's Waldo". First one to find Mary, circle her, and email me the pic, gets a special Christmas Treat!

December 28, 2017: Photoshop of me in Japanese zero airplane, “victimhood of the forced relocation of Japanese Americans,” “stealing property by fiat.” Normal opposition to historic preservation has no need to use this imagery or rhetoric.

A forever blighted parcel, currently coveted and bottled up in threats of litigation for years by Mary Urashima, so she can realize her dream of lording over her very own kingdom of ruins of unremarkable shacks, and bash Americans over the head with the Victimhood of the forced relocation of Japanese Americans away from the West coast of the US during WW2.

Most people are smart enough to realize that this entire filing, was a conspiracy between Tarvin, processing vindictive retribution against Rainbow /Republic , & Urashima.

It constituted a way to begin the process of stealing value from the property by fiat, on behalf of Mary Urashima and “Historic Wintersburg”, by constant litigation and threats of litigation.

January 20, 2018: Chuck Johnson, HB Sledgehammer: Creation of non-existent conspiracy, continued disinformation, discrediting historic designations of Historic Wintersburg. No idea what records these would be, however; communications with adjacent property owner should be normal for any historic preservation project to get their input, concerns.

Mary Urashima Request: Mary Urashima is the woman behind "Historic Wintersburg" a pathetic collection of run down blight that she is trying to pass off as historic in nature. Her attempts to compel Republic Industries to sell her the property have thrown enough shade on the property, that it has scared off any other potential buyers and has been artificially devalued by fiat. OVSD is complicit in the scheme. I want to see if any forms of collusion are occurring between district staff and this individual. 51 records.

Historic Wintersburg Request: See above. Why are there 151 records between OVSD and a private entity attempting to buy a private parcel?

An epic battle looms in HB.

One that pits the forces of private property rights vs. the forces of collectivist gadflies.

Operation 10-Go was the final offensive operation mounted by Imperial Japan at the close of the Second World War.

It resulted in a crushing defeat and the end of the Imperial Japanese Navy, including the loss of the Yamato, the world's largest and most powerful Battleship.

RE: the growing Wintersburg controversy

The Furuta family spokesman, Norman Furuta, has written city council to "urge" them "to find a way to preserve these historic structures and site if at all possible so that future generations will know of their importance in the story of the Japanese-American experience in Southern California."

Really, Mr. Furuta?

- Your family sold the property for nearly FIVE MILLION dollars. Are you willing to buy the property back now that it is all of a sudden so "historic?" Or make ANY sort of monetary donation? To date it appears you have not contributed a penny.
- Why did you wait until you made all your money to decide to support a preservation cause of your home?
- Rainbow supposedly purchased it from your family to prevent you from selling out to build an HDD condo complex.
- You do not live in the area anymore - you chose to sell the property for development - why are you now inserting yourself into a local property rights issue?

What would you like city council to do? Why were YOU entitled to make millions, but not the new owner? Exactly what would you like to see happen now to save these structures and what part will you play outside of obeying Mary's suggestion to write a letter?

Subject: Please help preserve Historic Wintersburg structures

Dear Mayor Posey and Council Members:

I recently have become aware of the intended sale of the former site of my family's goldfish and flower farm by Republic Services. The cultural and historic significance of the buildings remaining on this site to the Japanese-American community has by now been thoroughly documented by members of the Historic Wintersburg Preservation Task Force and the findings of the National Trust for Historic Preservation in its determination that the site merits one of its Most Endangered Historic Place status in 2014 and National Treasure status in 2015.

I urge you to find a way to preserve these historic structures and site if at all possible so that future generations will know of their importance in the story of the Japanese-American experience in Southern California.

Yours sincerely,
Norman Furuta

Published on February 8, 2018 by Chuck Johnson

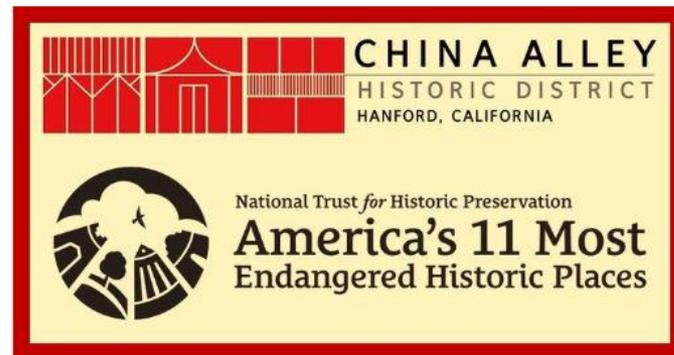

Seems Mary Urashima got some love from "Historic China Alley" in Hanford CA.

Not sure what that is but it brings this to mind...

Oh wait... "Historic China Alley" must have made a "Donation" to the same group Mary Urashima cites all the time!...

the time!...

Anyway, "Historic China Alley" mentioned the "Unbroken Noodles of Longevity", in their yummy looking noodle dish featured in he post.

February 8, 2018: Part of same post on HB Sledgehammer targeting China Alley and Historic Wintersburg, with phrases “well, you’re fucked”

The screenshot shows a Facebook post from the page "Historic Wintersburg" (@HistoricWintersburginHuntingtonBeach). The post is titled "A LOVE LETTER AND COMFORT FOOD FROM HISTORIC CHINA ALLEY IN HANFORD, CALIFORNIA" and is dated "19 hrs". The text of the post reads: "What she discovered was the story of Japanese immigrants who settled in what was once the agricultural community of Wintersburg Village. Thinking of it turned into rows of storage units brings tears to my eyes again. I'll do what I can, as will others, many of whom have multiple preservation priorities. The question of whether it will be enough rings in my ears. In Chinese culture the unbroken noodles represent longevity. I also wanted to acknowledge the passion we feel as preservationists and to feed our fire. But I also wanted a cooling note signifying unity and positive engagement." Below the text is a link to an article on the Hanford Sentinel website. A photo of a dish of noodles is visible at the bottom of the post. The left sidebar of the Facebook page is also visible, showing the page name and navigation options.

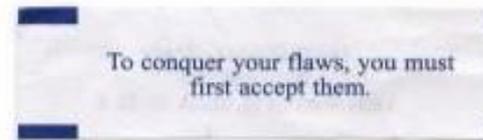

I thought it would be appropriate to send Mary Urashima some Fortune cookies to go along with that fantastic looking dish.

Dear City of Huntington Beach Officials,

The Japanese American National Museum stands in support of National Treasure Historic Wintersburg. We are distressed to learn that the property is slated for sale to Public Storage for development, and express concern that such development would cause the destruction of significant and rare historic resources eligible for the National Register of Historic Places.

Historic Wintersburg has been vetted by the National Park Service, the National Trust for Historic Preservation and the Trust for Public Land. The preservation effort has been supported by organizations from around the country and has received both national and international media coverage.

Historic Wintersburg is a National Treasure historic site representing Japanese pioneer history, Japanese American history, and important chapters in our country's national history.

The land was purchased prior to California's Alien Land Law of 1913, after which Japanese were prohibited from owning property. The fact that everyone associated with Historic Wintersburg was forcibly removed from California and incarcerated in America's concentration camps during World War II, due solely to their ancestry, makes this a place to learn about civil liberties. The lessons it can help teach are extremely relevant in our world today.

This is one of the last Japanese pioneer historic places in Orange County and a rare historic property for California. Please don't allow this property to be transformed into a commercial venture that disrespects important history that should be preserved for generations to come.

Sincerely,

Rick Noguchi
Chief Operating Officer

Some of my work was recently featured at an "Emergency Meeting" of the Huntington Beach Historical Commission, (correction... "Resources Board"... forgive me. I get all my useless govt. bodies confused) that was called to discuss the impending doom of Mary Urashima's folly, commonly referred to as "Historic Wintersburg".

My work was offered up as an example of what was deemed "unacceptable discourse" to the assembled pointy heads of this smug commission.

With no credit whatsoever for the sheer entertainment value that my work offered.

No doubt my work elicited a silent chuckle from more than one individual in the room...

It was the moral equivalent of stealing a political cartoon without crediting the artist.

See how unfair this whole Wintersburg deal is to the current owners? Original owners were allowed to make millions because... uh racism or something?

And, at worst the cost to taxpayers will now magically be "minimal to negligible." Said the corrupt politician. What could go wrong?

more comments

Michael Posey Last word on the topic: My intention was to help facilitate a constructive path forward towards preservation provided no taxpayer dollars were expended in doing so. That's why I suggested the Letter of Intent (LOI) be sent to Republic to facilitate this 11th hour meeting. The meeting devolved into an incorrect interpretation of my perceived intentions after my apology. Mary Urashima, you asked over and over again for me "explain myself". I did. And I apologized. That was not good enough as you pressed me again to apologize for being pragmatic and not dogmatic. I have been nothing but respectful of you and have tried to build a bridge with you. The only bridge can seemingly built must be built upon capitulation. Do you remember our first meeting touring Wintersburg? I asked, naive why did not the original owners take steps to preserve and why now time to preserve. This was prior to the Mc vote to raze the commercial. Your exact reply, "it was their turn to monetize the investment". Presumably at the expense of the new buyers. Even with that, I have endeavored to be a bridge builder while protecting the taxpayers and have remained friendly and respectful at every meeting we've ever had. Including ASCON, Cherry Blossom and many other events.

For anyone following the increasingly suspicious "Historic Wintersburg Task Force" controversy, an interesting update. I just tried logging on to the official city page to look up the minutes from a meeting, and the page appears to have been REMOVED. The site is not down - everything loads fine - except the task force page. Has the group (finally) been dissolved? Hard to tell but I have a couple of calls in. If the city reacts appears might be the case - good for them. It was inappropriate in its place to get involved like that in a private property issue, and I'm glad that Mary Urashima's ("Surf City Writer") recent baseless, racist attack against me on social media just may have created some liability issue. I've attached one of her attacks as well - please note the screen shot as proof of me "targeting" and "inciting" a "Japanese American" site - it's me asking why she never holds public meetings. Even if the task force is done, which I hope is finally the case, IMO she still needs to be held accountable for attacking my livelihood - she was the task force chair when she went off on this destructive tangent.

 Chris Epting ✓ Sue Gordon We now have crystal clear evidence of her true tactics and motives. There's no denying this. All of the land trust partners she works with, I believe need to be aware of what they are dealing with. This is clearly a vicious, vindictive and in my opinion, deeply disturbed individual. What kind of person goes after someone's livelihood because they disagree with your opinion? Is she that thin-skinned? Or is there more to this whole picture?

2020: Historic Wintersburg forms partnership with Heritage Museum of Orange County, a 501c3 non-profit regional museum.

National Treasure Historic Wintersburg shares the history of three generations of Japanese American experience, from immigration in the late 19th century to the return from incarceration following World War II. The 4.5-acre historic landscape contains six structures—the majority over a century old—including one of the oldest Japanese missions in Southern California and a former goldfish farm.

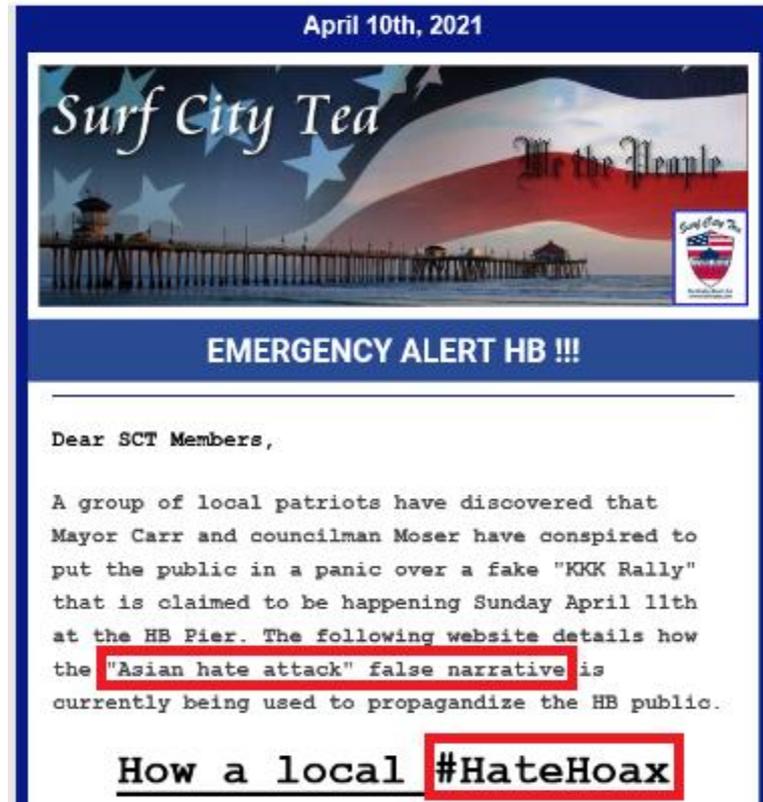

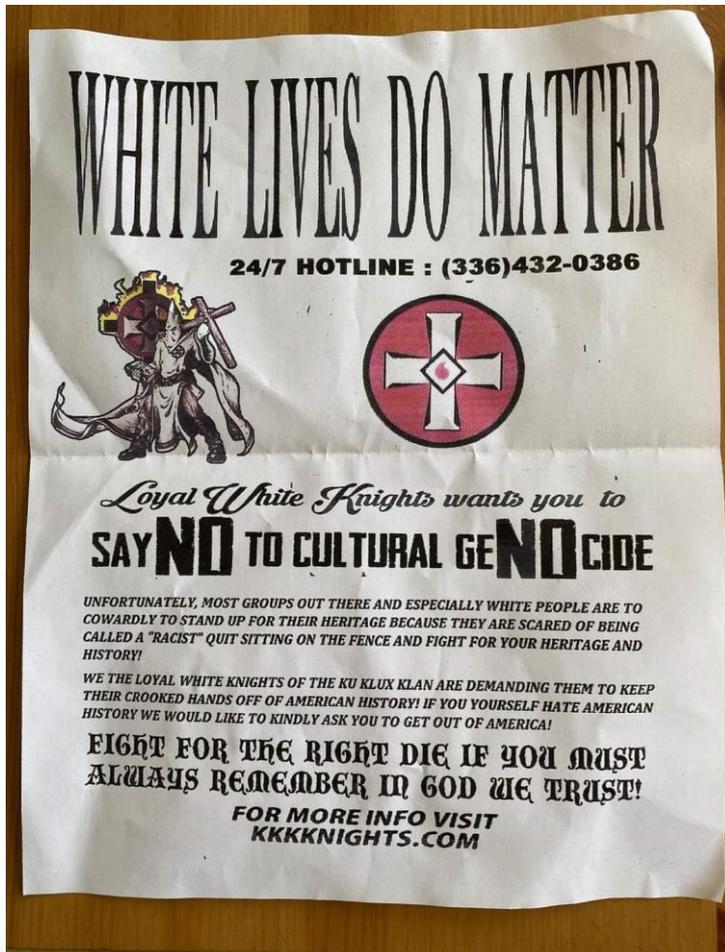

Historic Wintersburg is among the only surviving Japanese American-owned properties acquired before California passed anti-immigrant land laws in 1913 and 1920. Everyone associated with the Funda Gold Fish Farm and the Wintersburg-Japanese Mission was incarcerated during World War II, as were all Japanese Americans in Orange County. This historic site is a reminder of our nation's civil rights history and the struggle for social justice that many immigrant communities continue to face. Today, Historic Wintersburg is in the Oak View neighborhood of Huntington Beach, a vibrant, predominantly Latino community which contributes its rich cultural heritage to the continuing story of indigenous and immigrant history in Southern California.

Historic Significance

Representatives of the National Park Service visited the property in 2013 and found that, in addition to state protections, all the Historic Wintersburg structures are eligible for the National Register of Historic Places. The City of Huntington Beach confirmed this designation in their General Plan, after a professional historic resources survey, which added Historic Wintersburg to the list of California's precious historical and cultural resources.

Designated a National Treasure in 2015 by the National Trust for Historic Preservation, Historic Wintersburg is owned by Republic Services and remains endangered.

February 25 - March 19, 2022: It doesn't stop. Continuing comments on social media after fire dismissive of history, targeted comments about me, dismissive comments about anti-Asian hate and call for arson investigation. More comments by former Rainbow-Republic VP Sue Gordon dismissing anti-Asian hate, "no one has attacked any Asians, hurt any Asians, assaulted any Asians, said anything negative about Asians...[Mary]'s not Asian."
Note: Historic Wintersburg is American history and there is no requirement to be Asian to support its preservation..

Sue Gordon

These accusations of Asian hate in HB are totally unfounded. No one has attacked any Asians, hurt any Asians, assaulted any Asians, said anything negative about Asians. If anything, it's Mary who is stirring up the community with all her accusations. She's not Asian. The Fire Department has no dog in this fight -no need to lie about their investigation. The nearly 5 acre parcel was purchased by Rainbow over 12 -15 years ago for $5M to prevent a multi family apartment building, which was planned, from being constructed knowing complaints would arise. Now that Republic owns the property, who knows what they plan to do with it.

March 31, 2022: Continued social media commentary again in Huntington Beach targeting the Furuta family, with reference characterizing me, “attacks the city as being ‘anti Japanese’ when there is literally not one hate crime of this sort on record in HB”

Since our current City Council has decided to clandestinely discuss purchasing a property that HB residents, most likely, have no interest in acquiring, it seems a good time to point out that the Furuta family (owners prior to Republic) spoke publicly at a council meeting to emphasize their interest in monetizing the property.

This all happened back in 2004. Nobody on council or the owners or sellers mentioned anything about the property being especially historic even though the city had acknowledged it 20 years before. Then all of a sudden, one person comes along and decides that it must be saved. The owner gives her years to raise money which she is unable to do. So she resorts to attacking the company over and over for years even going into the Wikipedia page dozens of times to rewrite their history in her favor.

Why in the world would the city even open this conversation at the whim of one person who also now attacks the city as being “anti Japanese” when there is literally not one hate crime of this sort on record in HB?

(City Council) Motion Failed to Direct Staff to Begin Modification of the General Plan Re: Vacant Land on Nichols Street to the Warner Avenue Intersection (Across from Rainbow Disposal Plant) to Change the Zoning from Residential to Commercial or Industrial (450.10)

The City Council considered a communication from Councilmember Connie Boardman transmitting the following Statement of Issue: The vacant land on Nichols across from the Rainbow Disposal plant extending up to the intersection to Warner Ave currently has a zoning of residential. I believe this to be an inappropriate zoning for the site given its proximity to the Rainbow Disposal transfer station. If homes were ever built here, the residents would experience impacts from a large volume of truck traffic traveling down Nichols to Warner from very early in the morning throughout the day, as well as impacts from odors caused by the trash processing at the Rainbow site. Mitigation such as double-paned windows and air conditioning would not really, in my opinion, solve these problems, as many people like to have their windows open to enjoy the mild climate here in Huntington Beach.

Summary:

- Six years of continual coordinated and targeted harassment, reported to HBPD, city council members, HB human relations task force, OC Human Relations
- Lack of leadership taking a public stand against anti-Asian hate had damaging effect; silence provides environment for more hate
- Speaking up or reporting without support becomes “pulling the race card” talking point on social media; response is always that “there is no racism in HB,” “you’re calling the whole city racist”
- Anti-Asian rhetoric and graphics are implied as targeting me, but the reality is I am a proxy for the real target of this hate: Asian Americans
- Those participating thought they could “get away with it” because I am white while at the same time using my family as a continual talking point (“white woman with Japanese last name” “fake Japanese lady” “white genocide”)
- Normal opposition to historic preservation projects occurs; use of anti-Japanese and anti-Asian rhetoric and images is an entirely different message
- Lack of security, maintenance and care for property by Republic Services also seen as dismissive of the historic significance of Historic Wintersburg; disregard for Asian American history
- The goal was to intimidate, create questions about credibility, erase history by dismissing it as significant or important (while national entities determined it significant), divide support, generate opposition, harm reputation, wear down people, and create fear
- No idea why HBPD never appeared to take any action or why some of this wasn’t considered even a hate incident; told at one point they had to wait until “something worse” happened
- Context of multi-year coordinated harassment and hate is a reason the reaction to the fire was to suspect it was arson
