OC CARES Juvenile-TAY Prevention Task Force

OC CARES Juvenile TAY Prevention Taskforce

- The Juvenile TAY Taskforce was formed in May 2021 and is made up of over 20 members from various County agencies including:
 - Health Care Agency, Social Services Agency Probation, OC Sheriff, District Attorney, Board of Supervisors
- The Resource Guide was designed to support families with children ages 6-18 in need of prevention and diversion resources.
- The Taskforce completed the initial draft of the OC Navigator Resource Guide in May 2024, and it was reviewed by parent community members through a focus group before publication.

About This Guide

Developed by the OC CARES Juvenile-TAY Prevention Task Force, this comprehensive guide is a collaborative effort of various agencies dedicated to addressing the needs of our community's youth.

Access the Resource Guide Here: OC Navigator

About the guide:

Are you concerned about your child's behavior or emotional wellness? Do you notice signs that raise alarms for you or your loved ones? Our resource guide is tailored to assist parents, caregivers, and stakeholders with linking to resources that provide support for children ages 6-18 and their families as they navigate life's challenges.

Why use the guide:

- Comprehensive Information:
 - The guide encompasses a wide range of resources curated by members from different agencies, ensuring that stakeholders have access to up-to-date and relevant information.
- Empowerment:
 - By utilizing this guide, stakeholders can feel empowered to take proactive steps in supporting the youth they work with, contributing to their overall well-being and success.
- Community Collaboration:
 - The development of this guide is a testament to the collaborative efforts of various agencies within Orange County, reflecting our shared commitment to the welfare of our youth and families
